What parents are saying:

“Our home has already calmed down.”

“I feel less stress in the home and the children are more responsible for themselves and their actions – not only that, they are happier also!”

“There’s less stress in our home since our child has been given more responsibility. We are all much happier”

“Letting my children share control of situations has actually made my life easier. I’m calmer and more relaxed.”
